

McMASTER UNIVERSITY END-USER AGREEMENT FOR ARCGIS 10.5.1 STUDENT 365 DAY LICENSES

The user recognizes that this software is provided to you under McMaster University's Academic site license agreement, and is solely for use on one personal computer system to aid in instructional purposes. Students who are registered in EARTH SC/ ENVIR SC / GEOG 2GI3, 3MB3, 3GI3, 3GV3, 3SR3, 4GA3, 4GS3 and 4GT3 can purchase this software for $30. Students who are not enrolled in one of the aforementioned courses may still purchase the software however, the charge is $100. This software is not meant for installation in research or teaching labs. All other users (staff, faculty and student use in research labs) are required to get the full versions of the software and contribute to the site license just as you would with SAS, SPSS or Matlab on campus.

Use of this program for commercial, profit, or private gain is an express violation of the terms of the agreement which entitles McMaster University and ESRI Canada Limited to all remedies available in equity or law, as well as payment in full for standard license fees. For a further breakdown of the site license agreement, please contact Deane Maynard, x22542.

Under no circumstances may you reproduce this software or remove it from the computer for which it is designated. Please note: maintenance including technical support, is neither provided, nor an available option for the Student Edition of the software. There will be technical support provided through Patrick DeLuca (Rm 331/A, x27786) for issues regarding installation and authentication of software only. Additionally, you may receive updates periodically to notify you of service packs that are designed to improve the performance of the software.

I am aware of the statements outlined above in the end-user agreement. I understand that by taking possession of the above software, I agree to abide by these rules and policies. Failure to do so may result in disciplinary proceedings being brought against me. Please fill in one column only. The second column is used if you get a second copy the following year.
